In most countries of this planet criminal law recognizes and defines behaviors which harm others in much the same way.

<http://not.surgery/>

Let's take definitions of several of such behaviors from Polish Penal Code – those will be very similar or literally the same in Penal Codes of other countries.

Article 276 of Polish Penal Code – “Destroying or concealing a document without the right to dispose of it“

Whoever destroys, damages or renders unfit for use, or conceals, or removes a document to which he has no exclusive right of disposition shall be subject to a fine, the penalty of restriction of liberty or the penalty of deprivation of liberty for up to 2 years.

Article 258 of Polish Penal Code – “Participation in an organized criminal group or association“

§ 1. Whoever participates in an organized group or association having for its purpose the commission of offenses shall be subject to the penalty of deprivation of liberty for up to 3 years.

§ 2. If the group or association specified in § 1 has the characteristics of an armed organization, the perpetrator shall be subject to the penalty of deprivation of liberty for a term of between 3 months and 5 years.

§ 3. Whoever sets up the group or association specified in § 1 or 2 or leads such a group or association shall be subject to the penalty of deprivation of liberty for a term of between 6 months and 8 years.

Article 190a – “Stalking“

§1. Anyone who, through the persistent harassment of another person or another person's next of kin, creates a justified sense of danger or significantly violates the person's privacy, is subject to imprisonment for up to three years.

Article 189 – “Deprivation of liberty“

§ 1. Whoever deprives a human being of their liberty shall be subject to the penalty of the deprivation of liberty for a term of between 3 months and 5 years.

§ 2. If the deprivation of liberty exceeded longer than seven days, or was coupled with special torment, the perpetrator shall be subject to the penalty of the deprivation of liberty for a term of between 1 and 10 years.

Time and time again I notice hordes of apparently confused or bored, low-life morons, who either through their ignorance or stupidity were sold on the idea that acting like a mob and engaging in criminal behaviors is somehow “playing games”.

Oftentimes I'm also on the “receiving end“ of such.

So, if we're clear on how these are actually called, what penalties for such apply, and – if you happen to be part of such animal mob – who you are to me, let's proceed to one of the most recent examples.

On May 21st 2019, I sent a package via International Priority Mail, addressed to the European Court of Human Rights (ECHR). Package contained complete documentation related to complaint being filed, 42 documents in total:

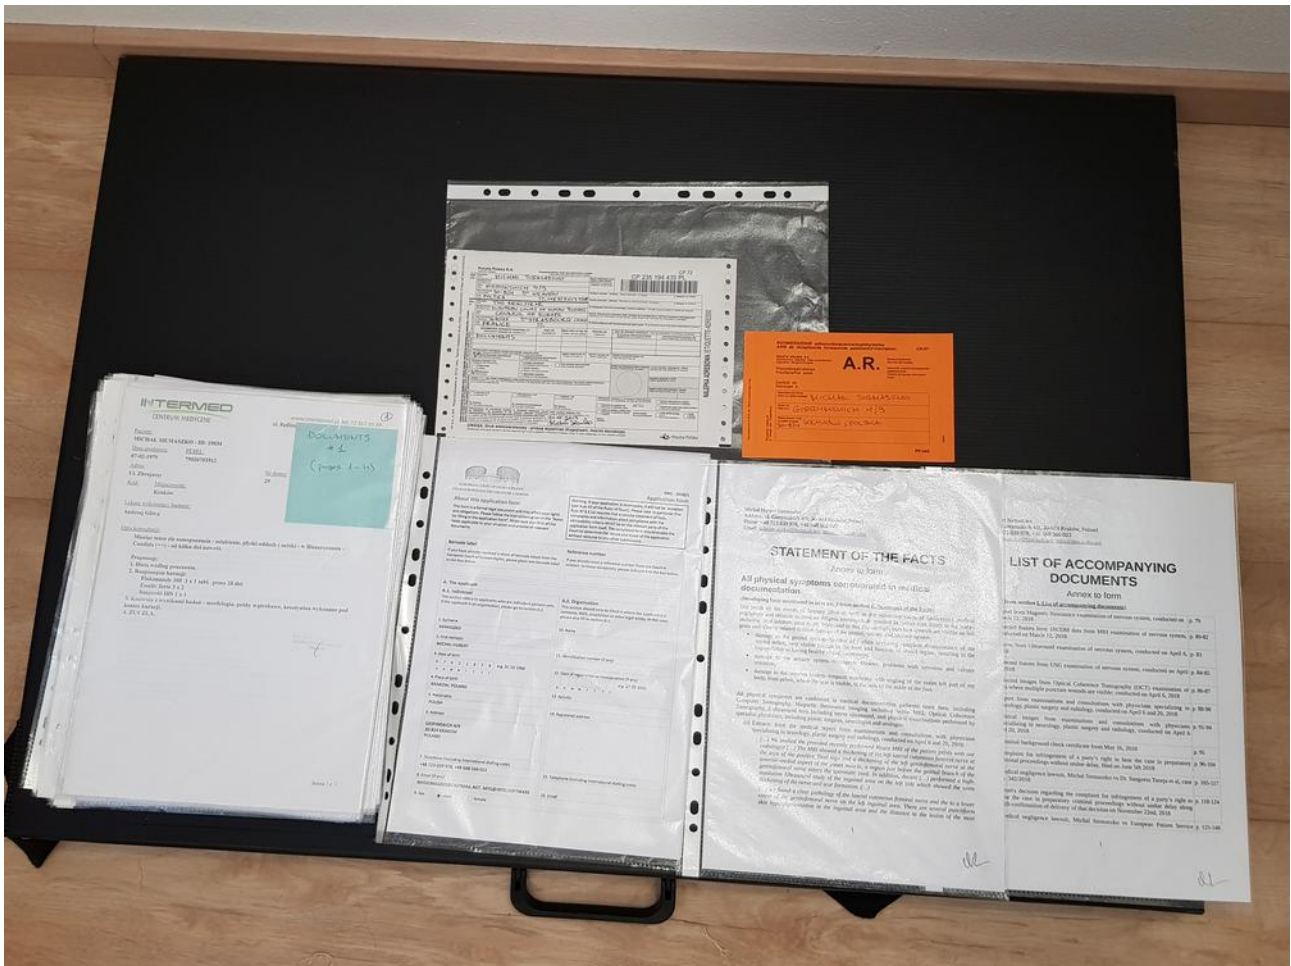

- Fully completed Application Form,
- Annex to Application Form, section I. List of accompanying documents,
- Annex to Application form, section E. Statement of the Facts,
- All 39 documents listed in section I. List of accompanying documents

In addition, also on May 21st 2019, I uploaded electronic versions of all documents contained in that priority package to the "Dropbox" file exchange site, where they are available to this day – in the "Modified" column, the date when they were uploaded, i.e. May 21st, 2019, is clearly visible.

Considering that the priority parcel was delivered on June 3rd, 2019, and the ECHR receives thousands of applications, it is an incredibly short time to read all of the documents I enclosed, then issue a decision and have it sent out.

Most importantly, all those supposedly missing documents mentioned in the ECHR letter I received:

- were included in the parcel I sent,
- are clearly listed in Section I. "List of accompanying documents",
- and there are no other documents concerning these issues, so no other documents could possibly be provided.

Documents that the ECHR representative allegedly could not find are clearly listed in Application Form, section I. List of accompanying documents, as well as on the Annex to Application Form, i.e.:

- Item #10: Decision refusing to initiate an investigation, dated April 14th 2014
- Item #34: Complaint for infringement of a party's right to hear the case in preparatory criminal proceedings without undue delay, filed on June 5th 2018
- Item #36: Court's decision regarding the complaint for infringement of a party's right to hear the case in preparatory criminal proceedings without undue delay, along with confirmation of delivery of that decision on November 22nd, 2018
- Item #37: Medical negligence lawsuit, Michal Siemaszko vs European Patient Service s.r.o. et al, case no. 60 C 328/2018

Gamifying crime

or how to engage low-life morons and re-package committing serious crimes as playing games

<http://not.surgery/>

So just to emphasize if this is not clear yet:

- package with all relevant documentation sent to the ECHR (European Court of Human Rights) was tampered with,
- documents were removed from that package,
- then decision issued claiming that because those same documents are missing complaint is inadmissible

The complaint I filed with the ECHR concerns jus cogens crimes—performing medical procedures / scientific experimentation without consent, and the subsequent 5+ year long cover-up of this crime—result of which is permanent bodily injury, and invokes articles 2 (“Right to life”), 3 (“Prohibition of torture and inhuman or degrading treatment”), and 6 (“Right to fair trial”) of the European Convention on Human Rights.

Gamifying crime

or how to engage low-life morons and re-package committing serious crimes as playing games

<http://not.surgery/>

Since no other documents concerning these specific matters which ECHR raised in their letter dated June 20th 2019 exist, except those I listed in section I. "List of accompanying documents" and included in the package, it is evident that the package, addressed strictly to the ECHR, was tampered with and documentation contained in it deliberately removed, rendering my complaint inadmissible.

Gamifying crime

or how to engage low-life morons and re-package committing serious crimes as playing games

<http://not.surgery/>

Aside from the fact that hiding information / destroying documentation reaffirms the allegations contained in that complaint, it is also apparent that the perpetrators want to continue to act with impunity.

Tampering with documentation, destroying documentation, and through such means preventing me from exercising my rights in seeking redress and compensation for damages I suffered, are serious crimes on their own.

This is not the first time documentation concerning these crimes, filed by me in courts and prosecution cases, is being removed or destroyed.
